EMERGENCY WARNING CALL DATABASE EXTRACT SERVICE
PURCHASE AGREEMENT
For
AT&T WISCONSIN

1. Service Provider: Wisconsin Bell Telephone Company, Incorporated d/b/a AT&T Wisconsin.

2. ECD Service

- a. ECD Service provides a county or municipality providing an enhanced emergency telephone system with a file extract of 9-1-1 record data from the Enhanced 9-1-1 Service database for the purposes of delivering or assisting in the delivery of emergency services pursuant to 47 USC § 222(g). Emergency services means 9-1-1 emergency services and emergency notification services.
- b. Customer must be an existing 9-1-1 customer obtaining Universal Emergency Number Service – 911 from AT&T. Customer acknowledges that 9-1-1 record data provided to Customer as part of the Service is confidential and proprietary and may be used solely for purposes of delivering or assisting in the delivery of emergency services pursuant to 47 USC § 222(g).
- c. The ECD Service is provided to Customer for the purpose of implementing or updating an emergency telephone warning system. 9-1-1 record data may be used only to identify the telephone location or service user, or both, and may not be used or disclosed by Customer, or its agents or employees, for any other purpose. All other uses are prohibited, and Customer is responsible for maintaining the confidentiality of the 9-1-1 record data. Customer agrees that each of its employees and authorized agents receiving or having access to 9-1-1 record data will be informed that such information is subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement.
- d. 9-1-1 record data for all subscribers served by Customer, regardless of telecommunications carrier or class of service, will be included in the ECD Service provided to Customer.
- e. 9-1-1 record data may not be reproduced in any manner, unless specifically authorized in writing by AT&T. Upon request, at the end of the Term of this Agreement, Customer will promptly return to AT&T all 9-1-1 record data in a tangible form or certify to AT&T that such information has been destroyed.
- f. A full extract of 9-1-1 record data from the Enhanced 9-1-1 Service database may be requested no more than once a month. The request must be submitted to AT&T in a format requested by AT&T. AT&T will deliver the full database extract within 21 business days of receipt of the appropriate written request.
- g. As part of the ECD Service, Customer may request incremental updates to the Enhanced 9-1-1 Service database. Customer may select incremental updates to be provided on a weekly, or monthly basis
- h. Customer acknowledges that the information contained in any database extract will reflect data that exists in the AT&T Enhanced 9-1-1 Service database as of the day the extract is pulled. The extract, when delivered, will identify the extract pull date.
- i. To the extent available, the following 9-1-1 record data elements will be included in each extract:

- Customer Name
- Telephone Number
- Service Address

3. Termination: Either party may terminate this Agreement upon thirty (30) days' written notice.
